FACULTY PROSPECTUS

Welcome to Raventree

Dear Esteemed Prospective Faculty Member,

Raventree Academy stands as a beacon for those who tread the intricate and profound pathways of esoteric wisdom. It is a space where tradition meets modernity, a unique blend of the ancient and forgotten with the innovative tools of the 21st century. At its heart, Raventree is an alchemical entity, shaped by the combined expertise, passion, and dedication of its community.

Your expertise, your journey, and your unique understanding of the mystical and esoteric arts could find a nurturing home here. We believe in the confluence of minds, the synergy that comes when seasoned practitioners come together to create a transformative and immersive learning experience. As you consider this prospectus, picture yourself amidst a thriving community of educators and seekers, where every lecture given is a legacy being passed down, and every interaction is a step towards shaping the future of magickal education and scholastic research.

We hope you will consider joining our Academy as an honored member of the faculty body.

Audite Arbores,

Our Vision

At Raventree Academy, we dream of an educational institution where magickal wisdom is not just archived but is vibrantly alive, pulsating through every course, lecture, and interaction. Our ambition is to be a world-renowned hub for magickal education, blending the profound depths of timeless wisdom, folklore, and mythology with the dynamism and versatility of modern academia.

We envision an academy where:

Students from all over the world find enlightenment, are challenged to question their practices and studies, explore, and dive deep into the mysteries of the esoteric arts.

Faculty are not mere educators but torchbearers, illuminating the path for the next generation while continuously enriching their own understanding and mastery.

Innovation meets tradition, where the power of technology is harnessed to delve deeper into folklore, myth, and magickal tradition.

Your Journey with Us

The Raventree experience is not of a typical educator but of a mystic guide, a mentor, and a pivotal part of a collective effort to redefine magickal studies. Your role at Raventree is multifaceted:

Course Creation: The courses you design and offer are more than just curriculum; they are journeys. Drawing from your depth of experience and knowledge, you'll be crafting these journeys, blending tradition with innovative teaching methodologies to make esoteric concepts tangible and comprehensible.

Community Building: Raventree thrives on its community. Engage in intellectually stimulating discussions, foster relationships with fellow educators, and nurture budding practitioners. Each interaction sows the seeds for a thriving network of esoteric enthusiasts.

Research & Development: At Raventree, we champion the spirit of inquiry. Delve into uncharted territories, challenge existing notions, and contribute to a reservoir of knowledge that benefits both the academy and the wider esoteric community. One of our foundational pillars is supporting and enabling faculty research.

The Raventree Experience

At its core, Raventree is a dynamic and evolving academy designed to offer the best to its faculty and students:

Virtual Campus: Our Moodle infrastructure ensures a seamless teaching and learning experience. With features tailored for esoteric education, it is an environment that is both conducive to teaching and enriching for students.

Resource Archive: Our extensive archives are a continuously growing and evolving repository. From rare texts to multimedia resources, it's designed to aid in your teaching process and also serve as a vast reservoir for further research and your personal studies.

Forums & Collaboration Spaces: More than just discussion boards, these spaces foster a sense of community. Engage in insightful discussions, share your latest findings, or collaborate on groundbreaking research.

Faculty Engagement: Part of the experience as a faculty member is continuous engagement with peers, students, and others in the magickal community, ensuring that you are at the forefront of new studies and groundbreaking research. Conferences, workshops, and faculty meetings are designed to enhance this aspect of the Raventree Experience.

Opportunities & Growth

Embarking on a journey with Raventree isn't just about the present—it's a commitment to an evolving future. Here's a snapshot of what awaits you:

Personal & Professional Development: Raventree is a space of continuous growth. Beyond teaching, you'll be exposed to cutting-edge research, collaborative projects, and unique training programs to further hone your own craft, as well as your expertise and research foci.

Development Grants & Research Opportunities: We deeply value the quest for knowledge. Though we begin as a volunteer-driven initiative, our goal is to provide research grants, travel funds for esoteric expeditions, and other financial supports as we grow and secure more resources.

Publications & Outreach: Raventree aims to have its own publication wing. As a faculty member, you'll have the platform to publish your writings, whether they're academic papers, articles, or books. Plus, through our digital channels, your voice can reach a global audience passionate about the esoteric arts. In addition, we aim to publish a quarterly journal of magick, as well as newsletters for within the Academy.

Your Impact

At Raventree, you are not just an instructor. You are a guide, shaping the future of countless students:

Student Impact: Every course you design, every lecture you deliver, leaves an indelible mark on the psyche of the student. You're not just teaching; you're building a legacy that'll be passed down through generations.

Catalyst for Change: As a mystic and scholar, you have the potential to challenge and change pre-existing notions, guiding students to think critically, question, and evolve.

Mentorship: Beyond the courses, the mentorship you provide can be a beacon of light for students. Your guidance can shape careers, beliefs, and even lives.

Our Commitment to You

While we begin this journey with volunteer positions, we are devoted to transitioning to a well-compensated structure. We are laying the foundations of an institution where your intellectual contribution is highly valued, and your professional growth is prioritized.

Future & Current Benefits:

Competitive Compensation: As we grow, we are committed to offering attractive remuneration, acknowledging your invaluable contribution.

Professional Development: Opportunities for continuous learning, workshops, seminars, and collaborations with esteemed institutions and scholars.

A Voice in the Academy: Be part of decision-making, contribute to the academy's growth, and have your ideas and insights shape our future.

Embark on a Journey of Enchantment

Join us at Raventree Academy, where every lesson is a spell woven, every course a pathway to the forgotten and mystical. Be part of a community where we don't just teach magick - we breathe, live, and create it, together.
